

FARIAN

"If you can't imagine it, you can play it"

PIANIST SONGWRITER
COMPOSER PRODUCER

Fabio Biffi, known professionally as FARIAN, is an Italian pianist, songwriter, composer and producer. He has won seventy national, European and international piano awards.

Throughout his music career FARIAN has produced 5 albums, 3 musicals and numerous singles such as "Karol" dedicated to Pope Karol Wojtyła, "Lucciole" written for Unicef Italy, "Senza Luna" in collaboration with Niccolò Agliardi, and the trilogy for Piano Solo "Grow", "Tearing" and "Searching for the Wind" written by his own.

Los Angeles was land of important productions for Farian, where he was involved as pianist, producer and songwriter. He worked with David Rothschild in the Michael Jackson's remake "Bad" for the anniversary of his passing. He worked also with Mr. AC and John Greenham in the single "Come On".

FARIAN has performed on stages including Radio DeeJay, Rome Film Fest, Pistoia Blues Fest, Fiamene Fest, Val di Fassa Panorama Music and along artists such as James Blunt, Simona Molinari, Renato Zero, Pino Insegno, just to name a few. In 2022 he performed for the Royal Swedish Family.

He usually works in charity events for the fundraiser in the scientific research, with important foundations as FFC (Foundation Research for the Cystic Fibrosis), ANT (Italian National Cancer Foundation) and Unicef Italy.

FARIAN's music is refined, delicate and passionate.

FARIAN

 +39 335 80 44 445

 io@farianmusic.com

 www.farianmusic.com

